UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST ORGANIZING ON ISSUES OF GLOBALIZATION

Unitarian Universalists for a Just Economic Community (UUJEC) and the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) are providing active leadership on issues of globalization.

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALISTS FOR A JUST ECONOMIC COMMUNITY:

Unitarian Universalists for a Just Economic Community are involved with:

- Wall Mart Watch.
- Days of action against the IMF and the World Bank.
- Action against Fast Track authority for the President to negotiate and write trade agreements with foreign countries without consulting Congress or state legislatures.
- UUJEC is working with David Korten to promote his book The Great Turning: from Empire to Earth Community. They have sponsored Mr. Korten at the General Assembly in Portland. They also promote book tours to congregations and district meetings across the country.

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST SERVICE COMMITTEE:

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee is sponsoring Fair Trade Coffee and trying to educate consumers about the importance of fair trade.

UUSC is supporting Indigenous people in Guatemala who are trying to protect their water from the environmental impacts of gold mining.

CO-OPERATIVE WORK:

UUJEC AND UUSC co -sponsor trips to Mexico to see first hand the impact of NAFTA on the lives of the Mexican people. Participants visit the factories that assemble goods for export to the United States.
